DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed on October 18, 2005, which has been fully considered in this action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 28, 29 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Colodner et al '548.

Colodner et al '548 discloses all the featured elements of the instant invention, note specifically an engine to generate an exhaust, see col. 1, line 56; a valve 13 with an exhaust input leg 16, a first exhaust output leg 18; a second exhaust output leg 12, a control element/valve member 19; an outlet hose 11.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 32-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Colodner et al '548.

Colodner et al '548 discloses all the featured elements of the instant invention as discussed above, except for the particular type of valve or valve member. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a valve or valve member comprising either a flapper valve, ball valve or slider valve in the apparatus of Colodner et al '548 since such valves or members are considered equivalents of each other and either one of these valves would work equally as well in the apparatus of Colodner et al '548.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 36-53 are allowed.
7. Claims 30 and 31 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 28, 29 and 32-35 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Baker et al, Bennett and White show fire extinguishers or extinguishing systems using engine exhaust.

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
